Chapter 1 by Story Wars

"Nikki ya bore me", Erin said. I sat and watched as the guys across the street put on weird looking hats, and facial mask. " Nikki, you are never going to solve a mystery", she said. "You've tried millions of times, look where it's got ya". I started thinking about all the times I had tried so hard, and they weren't a success. " Yeah I guess your right", I said, but something just didn't feel right when I said that. "I know I'm right, I'm always right", she said with a smile. That night after I got in bed and everyone was asleep, I planned to sneak out, and be back before morning. I packed my bag and was about to walk out of my room, when I heard these words: "These mask and hats should work, but don't be to obvious and don't act to obscure". My heart raced and I ran to my closet until I thought they were gone. " Oh dear", I said. "I knew something fishy was going on". Even though it was 1:50a.m, I still called Erin to let her know.
